

Udemy Partners with Google to Launch First-of-its-Kind "Learn AI with Google" Plan

February 19, 2026

Learners can meet critical workforce needs through hands-on AI training from trusted AI experts at Google

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 19, 2026-- Udemy (Nasdaq: UDMY), a global AI-powered skills acceleration platform, today announced the launch of its new Learn AI with Google plan. This plan brings Google's newly launched AI Professional Certificate to more than 84 million Udemy learners, enabling them to master in-demand AI skills and learn directly from Google experts to meet the growing demand for AI skills in today's workforce.

Learn AI with Google is the first comprehensive AI subscription by Udemy for individual learners. This subscription offers access to an AI curriculum designed by experts at Google, coupled with a three month access to Google AI Pro for hands-on practice, all in a single integrated offering that goes beyond traditional courses. The all-in-one subscription delivers 3 Google AI learning pathways with access to the most advanced Google AI models. It includes:

- Google's AI curriculum including Google AI Essentials, Accelerate Your Job Search with AI, and the latest Google AI Professional Certificate
- Expert-led instruction from trusted Google AI experts with hands on activities
- Access to Google's most advanced models with three months of Google AI Pro at no cost (terms apply)
- A chance to earn industry-recognized credentials from Google demonstrating AI fluency

"Our data speaks volumes about the current skills gap. Nearly 70% of employee upskilling efforts across the globe focus on AI skills," said Ramji Sundararajan, President of Consumer at Udemy. "Our partnership with Google represents a pivotal moment in career advancement, empowering professionals with the practical skills they need to grow in their roles and drive meaningful results from day one."

"AI is changing how we work, and we want to ensure everyone has the opportunity to benefit from it," said Natalia Broitman, Head of Growth, Grow with Google. "Drawing on our experience training millions of people in digital skills, we're excited to bring these resources to Udemy's global platform—empowering workers in every field with the hands-on practice and job-ready skills that employers value most."
